

The selection of works on show at the Bažato Gallery was created over the span of the past decade and more. It is like a diary that does not record time, at least not in the sense of the linear perception of time, but rather records the feelings this period engendered. Individual works or series of works are the artist's painterly interpretations of his surroundings or inner landscapes, of fascinations and preoccupations. Of fantasies and phantasms. The latest chapters of familial psychodrama, existential inquiries, allusions to role models (e.g. Jean Genet), images of flora and fauna, the associative suggestiveness of objects (paper boats, sewing needles, teapots) spill out onto paper and to a lesser extent onto canvas. Time, influenced by philosophies of the Far East, is cyclical and marked by the passage of seasons or by a moment in the day. Thus, the depiction of nature is impressionistic in the formal sense, but intimate in terms of its themes. The artist often paints several versions of the same motif, or creates sequences of interconnected motifs to form a phrase of images.

Nabor del na razstavi v galeriji Bažato je nastajal skozi zadnje desetletje in več. Je kakor dnevnik, ki ne beleži časa, vsaj ne v smislu linearnega dojetja časa, marveč beleži občutja, ki jih je to obdobje porajalo. Posamezna dela ali serije so odsev umetnikovega okolja ali notranjih pokrajin, fascinacij in preokupacij. Fantazij in fantazmov. Na platnu in še posebej na papirju se razliva zadnja poglavja iz družinske psihodrame, bivanjska vprašanja, aluzije na vzornike (denimo Jean Genet), podobe narave in živalskega sveta ter asociativna povednost predmetov (papirnate ladjice, šivanke, čajniki). Čas je pod vplivom daljnovzhodnih filozofij ciklični in zaznamovan skozi letni čas ali trenutek v dnevu. Tako je upodobitev zlasti narave v formalnem smislu impresionistična, vsebinsko pa intimistična. Avtor pogosto enak motiv naslika večkrat ali pa zaporedje med seboj povezanih motivov tvori v povedi podob.
